Holy Week—The Sacred Paschal Triduum

Holy Thursday

Lent ends before the Evening Prayer on Holy Thursday. The Easter Triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, ending with the conclusion of Vespers on Easter Sunday. Since Christ accomplished His work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God—principally through his Paschal Mystery in which by dying, He has destroyed our death and, by rising, He has restored our life—the sacred Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year.

At the Mass of the Lord's Supper, when He instituted the Eucharist, the tabernacle is emptied before the Mass. Holy water fonts are emptied before the celebration as we begin the Lord's Passion.

The sanctuary may be decorated moderately with flowers on this day. The "Gloria" is sung with bells rung, and when it is finished, the bells will remain silent until the "Gloria" is sung again at the Easter Vigil. The foot-washing ceremony is held at this Mass after the homily, reminding us of the example of love and service Jesus set for us at the Last Supper.

After Communion, the ciborium with sacred hosts for Good Friday is left on the altar. Following the prayer after Communion, the procession with the Holy Eucharist takes place through the center aisle and through the narthex to the St. Clare Chapel, the place of reposition. There the adoration of the Eucharist continues till midnight. Please maintain a sacred silence and spend as much time as possible in adoration.

The altar is stripped after the celebration of the Lord's Supper, all crosses are removed or veiled, tabernacles are left empty and open, and lamps/votive candles are not to be lit before images of saints through Holy Saturday.

Good Friday

The celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday has three parts: the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion. Unlike other celebrations, there is no entrance procession or an entrance song. The Ministers take their seats and at the appropriate time, the priest and deacon, wearing red vestments, approach the sanctuary in silence, prostrate before the altar, and pray in silence while the entire congregation kneels.

Then the Priest goes to his chair and begins the Liturgy of the Word, saying the opening prayer without greeting, and the penitential rite.

After the regular two readings, the Lord's Passion, according to John, is narrated. The homily then follows, and the Liturgy of the Word is concluded with Solemn Intercessions.

After the Solemn Intercessions, the Solemn Adoration of the Holy Cross takes place. The Deacon, together with two Ministers, brings up in procession a veiled Cross. The Priest, standing before the altar, unveils it in three phases, each time raising it and singing Ecce lignum Crucis. Then the Priests and Deacons venerate the Cross and invite the people to venerate the Cross by kneeling or bowing before it.

After the adoration of the Cross, the Good Friday collection is taken up for the Holy Land, while the altar is prepared for Communion service. A Priest or Deacon brings the Blessed Sacrament back from the place of repose; then the Priest proceeds with the Communion Rite. When the distribution of Communion is completed, the ciborium is taken back to the place from where it was brought. The Priest then says the prayer after communion and the prayer over the people. After genuflecting to the Cross, all depart in silence without a song or dismissal.

On Holy Thursday and Good Friday, the Eucharist is distributed only during the liturgy—but may be brought to the sick at any convenient hour. On Holy Saturday, the Eucharist is not given before the Easter Vigil celebration. It may be given only as viaticum for the dying.

Funeral Masses are not allowed on Holy Thursday, nor during the Paschal Triduum. Funeral rites may be celebrated with only the Liturgy of the Word, and Communion is not given. The Pascal fast should be observed on Good Friday and continued, where possible, on Holy Saturday to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus. In this way, the people of God will receive the joys of the Lord's Resurrection with uplifted and responsive hearts.

Holy Saturday

Holy Saturday is the day of proximate preparation for the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation. Holy Saturday recalls the mystery of Christ's descent into hell.

The Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting, meditating on His Passion and death and awaiting His resurrection. NO sacrament, including the Sacrament of Reconciliation, is celebrated on this day—except the Sacrament of the Sick in case of emergency.

“Abortion Provider Appreciation Day”—The State of Oregon, March 10th

In case you missed it on the news or in the newspapers here in Oregon, on March 10th, Oregon Governor, Tina Kotek, declared all future March 10ths to be “Abortion Provider Appreciation Day.”

As Archbishop Sample of the Diocese of Portland said in the first paragraph of his letter of March 13th in reply to this travesty: “There are moments when words fail, when the mind stares into the abyss and finds no bottom, when all that’s left is a kind of stunned silence—the kind you feel when you realize just how far a culture can drift from reality. “Abortion Provider Appreciation Day” is one of those moments.”

Archbishop Sample’s letter provides a cogent teaching on the sanctity of life, not just for Catholics, but all concerned Christians, especially here in Oregon.

Please take the time to go to the link provided to read the whole letter. You will be blessed to have read it: <https://archdpdx.org/pastoral-teaching-sanctity-of-life>.
