Holy Week—The Sacred Paschal Triduum

Lent ends before the Evening Prayer on Holy Thursday. The Easter Triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, ending with the conclusion of Vespers on Easter Sunday. Because Christ accomplished His work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God principally through his Paschal Mystery, in which by dying He has destroyed our death and by rising restored our life, the sacred Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year. At the Mass of the Lord's Supper when He instituted the Eucharist, the tabernacle is emptied before the Mass, and the holy water fonts are emptied before the celebration as we begin the Lord's passion. The sanctuary may be decorated moderately with flowers on this day. The Gloria is sung with bells rung and, when it is finished, the bells will remain silent until the Gloria is sung again at Easter Vigil.

The foot-washing ceremony is held at this Mass after the homily, reminding us of the example of love and service Jesus set for us at the Last Supper. After Communion, the ciborium with sacred hosts for Good Friday is left on the altar. Following the prayer after Communion, the procession with the Holy Eucharist takes place through the center aisle and through the narthex to the St. Clare Chapel, the place of reposition. There the adoration of the Eucharist continues until midnight. Please maintain a sacred silence, and spend as much time as possible in adoration. The altar is stripped after the celebration of the Lord's Supper, all crosses are removed or veiled, tabernacles are left empty and open, and lamps/votive candles are not to be lit before images of saints.

Good Friday

The celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday has three parts: the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion. Unlike other celebrations, there is no entrance procession or an entrance song. The Ministers take their seats, and at the appropriate time the Priest and Deacon wearing red vestments approach the sanctuary in silence and prostrate or kneel before the altar and pray in silence, while the entire congregation kneels.

Then the Priest goes to his chair and begins the Liturgy of the Word, saying the opening prayer without greeting and penitential rite. After the regular two readings, the Lord's Passion according to John is narrated. The homily follows, and the Liturgy of the Word is concluded with Solemn Intercessions.

After the Solemn Intercessions, the Solemn Adoration of the Holy Cross takes place. The Deacon together with two Ministers brings up in procession a veiled Cross. The Priest standing before the altar unveils it in three phases, each time raising it and singing Ecce lignum Crucis. Then the Priests and Deacon venerate the Cross and invite the people to do the same by kneeling or bowing before the Cross. After the Adoration of the Cross, the Good Friday collection is taken up for the Holy Land while the altar is prepared for Communion service. A Priest or Deacon brings the Blessed Sacrament back from the place of repose. Then the Priest proceeds with the Communion Rite. When Communion has been distributed and completed, the ciborium is taken back to the place from where it was brought. The Priest then says the Prayer after Communion and the Prayer over the people. After genuflecting to the Cross, all depart in silence without a song or dismissal.

On Holy Thursday and Good Friday, the Eucharist is distributed only during the liturgy, but may be brought to the sick at any convenient hour. On Holy Saturday, the Eucharist is not given before the Easter Vigil celebration. It may be given only as viaticum for the dying. Funeral Masses are not allowed on Holy Thursday, or during the Paschal Triduum. Funeral rites may be celebrated with only the Liturgy of the Word, and Communion is not given. The Pascal fast should be observed on Good Friday and continued, where possible, on Holy Saturday to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus. In this way the people of God will receive the joys of the Lord's Resurrection with uplifted and responsive hearts.

Holy Saturday

Holy Saturday is the day of proximate preparation for the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation. Holy Saturday recalls the mystery of Christ's descent into hell. The Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting, meditating on His Passion and death and awaiting His Resurrection. NO Sacrament, including the Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated on this day, except the Sacrament of the Sick in case of an emergency.

“Knights Corner”

The Knights of Columbus was founded on the principles of charity, unity, and fraternity.

CHARITY: Our Catholic faith teaches us to “Love thy neighbor as thyself.” Members of the Knights of Columbus show love for their neighbors by conducting food drives and donating the food to local soup kitchens and food pantries, and by supporting—both spiritually and materially—mothers who choose life for their babies. Knights recognize that our mission, and our faith in God, compels us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need—a call we answer every day.

UNITY: None of us are as good as all of us. Members of the Knights of Columbus all know that together we can accomplish far more than any of us could individually. So, we stick together, and we support one another. That doesn't mean that we always agree or that there is never a difference of opinion. It does mean that as a Knight of Columbus, you can count on the support and encouragement of your brother Knights as you work to make life better in your parish and community.

FRATERNITY: Blessed Michael J. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus in large part to provide assistance to the widows and children left behind when the family breadwinner died—often prematurely. The Order's top-rated insurance program continues to do this today, as do the good works of individual Knights, who gave more than 75.6 million service hours in 2017, illustrating how Catholics serve each other in fraternity and mercy.

Thank you for supporting the Knights of Columbus!

GENTLEMEN, IF YOU HAVE AN INTEREST IN BECOMING A KNIGHT, CONTACT PAT BURRUS AT (435) 659-4623 OR MATT DEPPMEIER AT (541) 595-2012 FOR MORE INFORMATION.
