DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Priate revelations and apparitions that have been authenticated by the Church have added greatly to the devotion of Catholics. However, even private revelations and apparitions authenticated by the Church do not add anything new to the fullness of revelation already given to us by Jesus. But they remind us that we have not been paying enough attention to Jesus—the fullness of revelation. Therefore, authenticated private revelations and apparitions are a summons and wake-up call to be ever more sincere in turning away from sin and growing in faith and love of Jesus.

In the year 2000, Our Holy Father Pope John Paul II instituted a new feast, the Feast of Divine Mercy to be celebrated for the first time in 2001 on the Second Sunday of Easter; i.e. today. It arises out of a series of apparitions which a Polish nun, Sr. Faustina, received. Sr. Faustina was born in Poland in 1905. When she was 20 years old, she entered the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy where she lived for the next 13 years—until her death on October 5, 1938. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1993 and canonized in 2000. When canonizing her, the Holy Father said:

“Today my joy is truly great in presenting the life and witness of Sr. Faustina to the whole Church as a gift of God for our time. By Divine Providence, the life of this humble daughter of Poland was completely linked with the history of the twentieth century, the century we have just left behind. In fact, it was between the First and Second World Wars that Christ entrusted his message of mercy to her. Those who remember, who were witnesses and participants in the events of those years and the horrible sufferings they caused for millions of people, know well how necessary was this message of mercy.”

In April 1978, the Holy See in Rome permitted the spread of this devotion. This does not mean that you are required to believe in the apparitions or practice this devotion, but you are free to do so and free to spread the devotion because the Church has found nothing in it contrary to our faith. The one primarily responsible for the Holy See approving the authenticity of the apparitions was Karol Wojtyła, then Archbishop of Cracow, who was later that year elevated as Pope. In 1981, Pope John Paul said that his destined role was to bring the era of Divine Mercy into the world:

“Right from the beginning of my ministry in St. Peter’s See in Rome, I consider this message my special task. Providence has assigned it to me in the present situation of man, the Church, and the world.”

Today we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy; thus, we usually call today Divine Mercy Sunday. St. Faustina was privileged to receive apparitions from Jesus emphasizing His mercy, and especially His mercy today. Jesus’ promise is recorded three times in the Diary of Saint Faustina, each time in a slightly different way. This is the first teaching from Jesus:

“My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. . . . The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day, all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy.”

*For the sake of His sorrowful passion,
Have mercy on us and on the whole world.*

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

Hello!

My name is Anais, and I am the local coordinator for the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE). I have an exchange student coming from Italy named Elisabetta who is actively involved in her church and passionately loves Christ. She is arriving in the Bend area in August for her 12th-grade school year. I'm working to connect her with an awesome volunteer host family who'll love her as one of their own, and with whom she can share her dedication to her faith.

Elisabetta is 17 years old and enjoys playing volleyball, painting, and drawing. She is also interested in astronomy, loves to play and watch basketball games, and she has a passion for photography. She is proficient in English and has her own medical insurance and spending money to cover her personal expenses.

Volunteer host families come in all shapes and sizes—retired, single parents, couples with or without children of any age, etc. A host provides a bed, three meals a day, and welcomes her as one of their own! I'm looking forward to finding her a family in the next few weeks to secure her spot in school.

If anyone is interested, please send an email to me at: anaispossamai@gmail.com or call my cell at (908) 500-0415.

[Editor's Note: Being a host family is truly a rewarding experience! I know because my family answered an ad in our church bulletin to host a student from Brazil. We enjoyed it so much, we hosted a student from Brazil twice more, as well as one from Japan.]
