Divine Renovation Conference: Evangelization

I would like to continue my reflection on what we heard and learned at the conference that I attended together with four others from the parish a couple of weeks ago. It was St. Augustine who prayed, “You have made us for yourself, O Lord and our hearts are restless until they rest in you.” In these words, St. Augustine captures something that is deep in every human heart. Yes, our hearts long for the infinite. Our hearts long for God. Restlessness is the desire to be filled and fulfilled. We all have it. Some ignore it and others try to fill this longing/restlessness with material things and pleasures. However, this longing is never satisfied by those. It can be satisfied only by God. An eternal longing can be satisfied only by something eternal.

In Chapter 4 of the Gospel of John, we read the story of the woman at the well. She came to the well that day like any other day to draw water—something that she probably did every day. She came to satisfy her physical thirst. She did not come seeking Jesus, but He initiated the conversation with her at the well.

Jesus was able to see the longing/restlessness of her heart. She acknowledged it when she said, “Sir, give me that water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw.” The Samaritan woman found what her heart was longing for. After she found the Messiah, the gospel says, she left her water jar there at the well and went to the town where she invited all to come to see the Messiah. “Come and see a Man who told me all that I ever did.” It was an invitation to an encounter. After her encounter with Jesus, she became a missionary, inviting others to an encounter with Christ.

Invitation is the key here. In John 1:43–51, we read that Philip, who also had an encounter, inviting Nathaniel to “come and see.” In John 1: 35–42, we read about Andrew inviting his brother, Peter, to come to see Christ. Jesus himself invited His followers: “Come, follow me. I will make you fishers of men.” Why should we invite others to have an encounter/experience of Christ?

Why evangelize?

First, the situation we live in demands it. Whether you realize it or not, the American society is getting secularized fast. Today, people would like to believe the truth found in the social media rather than the truth found in the Bible. They go to Google to find answers to life’s problems instead of the Bible.

2021 Pew Research: The number of people who identify themselves as Christians in this country is down to 63%, compared to 75% in 2011. Among the Christians, 40% are protestant, 21% Catholics and 2% orthodox Christians. Only 25% of Catholics go to Church every week, 65% a few times a year and the rest never go.

Those who do not have any religious affiliation is up 29% compared to 16% a decade ago. This means that 3 in every 10 adults in this country have no religion. Those with no religious affiliation is 53% in the United Kingdom.

We will be there in less than a decade. For every one Catholic who comes in 6 Catholics leave. These numbers are alarming.

Second—and most important—we have to evangelize because of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18–20). Before He ascended into heaven, Jesus said to His disciples, “Go, therefore, make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

It was a command. Thus, we have a responsibility today to make disciples. Jesus did not say to go and be his disciples. He said, “Go and make disciples.”

The first step toward making disciples is invitation. It is an invitation to come to encounter Christ—to have an experience of Christ.

This is evangelization. It is helping people to make that first step to come to Christ. It is the first step to know Christ. This is not catechesis. Catechesis is for someone who has already come to Christ. Catechesis is “feeding the sheep.” Evangelization is “catching the fish.”

We need both: evangelization and catechesis. Once someone is brought to an experience of Christ, he or she wants to know more about Him. If someone has not had a personal experience of Christ, then catechesis is not going to bear fruits.

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

Dear St. Francis School and Parish Family,

I want to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude for the blessing you have been during my four years in Bend! The Lord has called me to serve in another place, and I go and take you all with me in my heart. As a Daughter of Mary Help of Christians, we make a vow of obedience, and we go when and where the Lord calls us.

I want to thank each one of you for showing me God's tender love and great generosity. I will never forget the wonderful welcome you extended to us when we arrived four years ago! We have always felt welcomed and "at home" among you. Please know that I will always remember you in my thoughts and prayers, and I ask you to do the same.

As I depart, I entrust to you my sisters who will continue sharing the spirit of our founders, St. John Bosco and St. Mary Mazzarello.

I wish you a happy continuation of the mission here at St. Francis. There is much work to do, and all of us are called to bring Jesus to others with our words, thoughts, and actions. Let us remain united in love, joy, and prayer, and let us become saints!

*With much joy, love, and gratitude,
Sr. Ngan Do, FMA*

Thank You to Sr. Ngan and Fr. Shaji

I would like to thank Fr. Shaji and Sr. Ngan for all they have done for our parish and school. They have been a blessing to all of us.

Fr. Shaji's delightful smile and ready availability for pastoral ministry lightened my heavy load. Although new to the country, he has certainly been very helpful.

Sr. Ngan has been a huge help—particularly to the school. She taught Faith for the first two years to all grades, and then she taught the 1st grade full time. Her 1st-grade students knew their prayers—although they were still just learning to read! Sister has amazing skills to work with those students.

We promise both our prayers as they take up new ministries. St. Francis Parish is very grateful for all you have both accomplished. Thanks for “walking with us.” You are always welcome here. We will miss you both, and God bless your new ministries!
