Advent: An Overview

Advent is a time for us to understand that God is always doing something new for us. Unlike the commencement of the New Year, the Universal Church begins its new liturgical year on the first Sunday of Advent. Advent is all about watching and waiting. We are called during this holy time to wait with anticipation knowing the joys of what is to come with the arrival of Christ.

During Advent we practice the discipline of opening our hearts to the presence of Christ in our midst; we wait for a glimpse of the truth that He is with us; we long to experience the joy of His presence and the wonder of the love of our God, who became flesh and dwelt amongst us and whose Spirit is with us, encouraging us to join in the living of God's Kingdom now. Our task during the Advent season is to imitate Mary by pondering the Word of God and allowing it to resonate within our hearts and pour into our lives.

The vestments change and the Gospel changes as the Church moves into a new cycle, recalling and celebrating God's coming to our world in Jesus. This year, we will hear the earliest written Gospel—that of Mark—written around the year 70 CE. These were years of conflict for the early Christians. The Emperor Nero had begun to persecute Christians in the year 64, and they were considered to be practicing a new and superstitious cult.

In Palestine, things were no better because there had been a Jewish uprising against Rome in 66 that led to the destruction of Jerusalem. Mark's community was under threat and, beside all these external factors, Jesus had not returned to them as they were expecting. For 40 years they had kept faith but, as time passed, the waiting became harder.

The Gospel of the first Sunday of Advent speaks of this situation: Be alert. Stay awake. The Master will return. Mark uses popular images associated with the end of time according to 1st Century Jewish imagination. Living now, so many centuries distant from the Gospel events, Mark's words take on a special urgency. Complacency and routine can replace alertness and watchfulness and end up paying a severe price for it.

On the 2nd Sunday of Advent, we have the first written proclamation of the Gospel—the Good News of Jesus the Christ, the Son of God. Mark wastes no time in his announcement with a long introduction but instead immediately introduces John, a messenger sent before the Messiah to “Prepare a way for the Lord; make His paths straight.” John had a simple message: “God's reign is coming. Prepare for it by seeking forgiveness.”

The 3rd Sunday of Advent delves deeper into the person of John the Baptist and his role in the overall scheme of salvation. John makes it clear to those who questioned him that he is not the Christ, or Elijah, or the Prophet, but “. . . a voice that cries in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.” John knows his place in God's scheme. He humbly attests that there is another, even greater, who is coming. This is John's greatness, to know and accept the particular role he is given for the Kingdom. It is the Gaudete (rejoice) Sunday when we light the rose candle and wear rose vestments that set a tone of joyful expectation of the Lord's birth as we cross the halfway mark in our preparations.

The 4th Sunday of Advent presents us with the annunciation of the angel to Virgin Mary. In this beautiful and much-painted scene, the miracle is announced. God is entering our history by becoming one of us. This is the quite extraordinary claim of Christianity. The great divine mystery behind and beyond our world has become a human being. No other religion dares to make so bold a claim.

Over the four weeks of Advent the Church provides the opportunity for us to encounter the mystery of Christ present in the Advent Liturgy. We are invited to gather, encounter, recall, reflect, share, connect, and consider how we will live differently as a result of what we have experienced. By being together with our stories, our questions, our open hearts and minds, we can form a community that lifts, honors, and learns from each other as we are sent out with anticipation and joy this Advent season.

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

“Knights Corner”

The Knights will have their next BLOOD DRIVE AT THE END OF THIS MONTH ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29th, from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., in the Community Center. Give Something That Means Something! There is no substitution for donated blood. Blood Donation is all about having the blood on the shelf today when it is needed to be there for accidents tomorrow. What better way to give something of yourself to someone who really needs it? Blood is needed all the time—especially now—and this is a great opportunity.

To schedule an appointment, contact Frank Krupicka at (541) 480-7365, call (800) RedCross, or visit RedCrossBlood.org and enter sponsor code: StFrancisBend. Streamline your donation experience and save up to 15 minutes by visiting RedcrossBlood.org/rapidpass to complete your pre-donation reading and health history questions on the day of your appointment.

St. Francis of Assisi Knights of Columbus Council #1872 has received the distinction of “Double Star Council” for the 22–23 fiscal year—the international organization’s top award for local councils! The Star Council Award recognizes overall excellence in the areas of growing membership, promoting K of C insurance benefits, sponsoring Catholic faith formation programs, and volunteering time through service-oriented activities.

Keep those Oregon redeemable bottles and cans coming. This is our #1 fundraiser, and it does not cost you anything; you made that donation when you purchased the beverage!

Respect for Life Ministry

Each year during Advent, we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of Christ, our Savior, at Christmas.

Today, women in our own communities are pregnant, poor, perhaps without a home, and in great need.
They may feel alone, scared, and overwhelmed, not knowing where to turn. In challenging circumstances, expectant mothers need a refuge of their own.

May we proactively seek to offer loving support and encouragement as they prepare to welcome their children. By answering this call, may we help mothers experience the joy, hope, and peace brought by the infant Jesus. And may we, too, share in and bear witness to the miracle of new life.

Please see the "Pray for Moms" handout in the narthex this month for ways to help. It includes contacting your local pregnancy resource center or diocesan/parish pregnancy support ministry. Ask about ways you can help, such as volunteering or donating baby items. Clinics are in Bend (541) 385-5334, Redmond, Madras, and Prineville.

Marriage Saving—the Weekend Phase

During the weekend phase of Retrouvaille, a series of presentations are given by a team of three couples and a priest, who will present a technique of communication that enables you to take a good look at most areas of your relationship. After each presentation, you will have time in the privacy of your room for discussions.

Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication. Visit www.helpourmarriage.org for confidential testimonials. To register for the January 26-28, 2024, weekend at Our Lady of Peace Retreat Center in ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI CATHOLIC SCHOOL

The mission of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School is to educate the whole child in a Christ-centered community that values service, leadership, and academic excellence.

Our vision is to inspire academic scholars, motivated to serve with faith and moral character.

This is the week of JOY!

Sr. Shaila led us in a Peace Retreat—"A Treat for Our Souls." We concentrated on how we can bring peace into the world, our school, and our families. The students made lists of very simple acts that can turn the day around and bring peace. ▶

We must choose JOY in our daily work and during challenges to be bearers of peace.

STEM class "Elf on a Shelf" challenge. ▼

We must be observant to find JOY in the natural world. Looking for repetitious patterns & textures that bring us a sense of calm. Looking for contrasts that highlights important information.

Our ART students are working on adding texture, repetition, and contrast to their pieces. ▼
