Burial and Cremation for Catholics: Part 3

Our deceased loved ones need to have a resting place that is not on a mantle or in the homes of the living. They need to find rest in God, and we need to let them go. Besides, they have left this world of concerns, worries, pains and sorrows. They belong to the Church Triumphant (saints) and not the church militant (living). After Peter and John had returned home upon finding the empty tomb, Mary Magdalene stood at the tomb weeping. To her Jesus said, “Do not cling on to me,” meaning that His time has come to leave, and she needs to let Him go.

“Only in grave and exceptional cases,” the instruction says. “Local bishops may give permission for ashes to be kept in a private home.” But, Cardinal Muller said it was not up to him, but it was up to local and national bishops' conferences to determine what those “grave and exceptional” circumstances might be. Placing the ashes in a sacred place also “. . . prevents the faithful departed from being forgotten or their remains from being shown a lack of respect,” which is more likely to happen as time goes on, and the people closest to the deceased also pass way the instruction said. In conclusion here is the summary:

The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burial be retained; but it does not forbid cremation, unless this is chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching.

It is generally preferred that cremation take place after the funeral Mass with the body present. If that is not possible, the funeral Mass needs to be celebrated at least with the presence of the cremated remains.

Cremated remains should be preferably interred in a Catholic cemetery or in a sacred ground in an appropriate container. This may be in the ground or in a niche, vault or columbarium. The Church recommends that the place of burial be memorialized in a stable manner.

The ashes should not be placed in unsuitable receptacles such as jewelry, dishes or space capsules. Nor should cremated remains be made into jewelry, artwork or other objects of display.

Practices such as scattering the cremated remains over water, or from the air, or keeping the cremated remains at home are not considered reverent forms of disposition that the Church requires.

Other practices such as comingling cremated remains, or dividing up cremated remains among family members, or friends are not acceptable for Catholics. It would be acceptable, however, to place remains side by side in receptacles that would eventually disintegrate and mix the ashes after burial.

A Mass of Christian burial is what the Church recommends for every Catholic. It is not just a celebration of life, but coming together to pray, offering the sacrifice of Christ Himself—the Mass—for our loved ones and to entrust them to God’s mercy.

Unfortunately, it may be true—as I have encountered many times—that you may be the only one who is a practicing Catholic in your family, and your children would not think of a Catholic funeral service for you or may not know what to do. Therefore, it is wise that you make plans while you are still able to and make that available in writing to the funeral home or to a responsible member of your family.

Mary McGlone, who is the Funeral Coordinator at St. Francis, can be reached by calling the Parish Office at (541) 382-3631, or by emailing her at: griefministry@stfrancisbend.org. She will be happy to assist you in making plans for a Catholic funeral. It is always better to have everything in writing so that your spouse and children are not left to figure out what you may have wanted. It is also important to let the church know of the passing away of a Catholic in your family.

*In My Father’s house
there are many dwelling places; . . .
I am going to prepare a place for you,
I will come back and take you to Myself.
(John 14:2–4)*

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

“Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible,” Thursdays, 1 to 2:30 p.m. for 8 weeks. This study provides the easiest way to understand the Bible. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible makes the complex simple. It gives you the “big picture” of the Bible by focusing on the story that ties all Scripture together. The Bible is a story about the Father’s unfailing love for you, a love that you are now called to share with others. You will:

- ♦ Make sense of the Bible and see how it relates to your everyday life;
- ♦ Discover the remarkable connections between the Old and New Testaments;
- ♦ See how the sacraments, the papacy, and our entire Catholic Faith are rooted in Scripture.

“Matthew: The King and His Kingdom,” Part 3 of 3, Tuesdays, 10 a.m. for 8 weeks. Perfect for Lent: Shows how Jesus, the promised Messiah, relives the life & struggles of Israel to become the faithful & victorious King. You will come to see Jesus in a new way & discover what His life and teachings mean for us today.

- ♦ Discover how Christ instituted the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, so that we could share in his divine life;
- ♦ See how Jesus fulfills God’s promises to the people of Israel;
- ♦ Learn how Jesus established his kingdom on earth in his Church;
- ♦ Walk with Jesus as he is crucified and resurrected for our salvation.

Lenten Fast & Abstinence Guidelines

Lent prepares the faithful to celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. It is a time for reflection and spiritual renewal—a time to examine one's relationship with God and with others. Lent is also the final preparation period for catechumens seeking to be baptized at the Easter Vigil.

As Catholics, the Church calls us to a spirit of repentance and conversion—“to turn away from sin, and to be faithful to the Gospel.” Through our traditional practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, we express our conversion and prepare to renew our Baptismal promises at Easter.

Below are the definitions of the Church for “fasting and abstinence” as well as the obligatory minimum requirements that she asks of us.

- † Abstinence: Meat and poultry are removed from our meals—fish is acceptable.
- † Fasting: Eat one (1) full meal and two (2) smaller meals—no snacking during the day.
- † All Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
- † All Catholics 14 years and older are to abstain from meat and poultry on Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday.

*Adoration will be held at the normal times.
