Alpha: Bringing the Mission to the Center of Our Church's Life and Activities—Part 2

Alpha is the evangelization tool we plan to use in our parish to deepen our own faith, and to reach out to those who are not back to Church yet now that all the COVID restrictions are lifted, and to evangelize the unchurched. It is now used in more than a hundred countries and over 1.5 million people have experienced Alpha. “One of the advantages of Alpha is that it focuses on the kerygma (Greek for “proclaim”). In the ancient church there was a clear distinction between the kerygma and the Didaché, the catechesis. The kerygma was the starting point of faith, and the catechesis had to form the faith, but faith in itself blossoms only by hearing the kerygma (Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa). Using Alpha, we hope to deepen our faith and evangelize by:

1. Creating a Culture of Invitation and Hospitality within our community. Is St. Francis an inviting community? Are we an evangelizing community? How many of you have invited someone to Church or to join you at a Mass, a social gathering, a Bible study, etc., in the past three months? Have you talked to someone about Jesus Christ or your faith in the past one month?

“An evangelizing community knows that the Lord has taken the initiative, He has loved us first (cf. 1 Jn 4:19), and therefore we can move forward, boldly take the initiative, go out to others, seek those who have fallen away, stand at the crossroads and welcome the out-cast” (EG, 24).

Alpha helps a parish to become an evangelizing community. Those who have experienced Alpha naturally want to invite their friends to the next Alpha. The Alpha small groups help a parish to remember the importance of welcome and hospitality for those who come to explore life and faith.

2. Creating a Culture of Encounter. “Open yourselves docilely to the gifts of the Spirit! Accept gratefully and obediently the charisms that the Spirit never ceases to bestow on us! Do not forget that every charism is given for the common good; that is, for the benefit of the whole Church” (St. John Paul II, Pentecost 1998).

Alpha helps a parish to foster a personal encounter and relationship with Jesus through the power and ministry of the Holy Spirit. Through the simple model used in Alpha for prayer ministry, people learn how to pray for one another, and it becomes a normal part of life in a parish.

3. Creating a Culture of Missionary Discipleship. “Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus” (EG, 120).

Alpha engages lay people in the life and mission of the Church. With the blessing of the pastor, a core team takes ownership and hosts Alpha in the parish. Often, guests who have experienced Alpha go on to become effective and confident evangelizers themselves as they share the impact that their encounter and relationship with Jesus have had on their lives.

I encourage everyone to read the book Divine Renovation by Fr. James Mallon. In it he says, “The impact of running Alpha is that the laity can now engage in evangelization. Before, we felt a bit timid about sharing Jesus with others, but Alpha has given us boldness.”

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

Appropriate Attire

Please dress modestly! It is now summer, and it is a good time for a reminder to dress modestly while in Church.

Here at the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we come face to face with God. Your attention to appropriate attire is much appreciated.

Holy Humor

A Jewish Rabbi and a Catholic Priest met last week at the town's annual 4th of July picnic. Old friends, they began their usual banter:

"This baked ham is really delicious," the priest said to the Rabbi. "I know it's against your religion, but I can't understand why such a wonderful food is forbidden! When are you ever going to try it?"

With a big grin, the Rabbi looked at the priest and said, "At your wedding!"
