Knights' Corner

There are many references to the word "Numbers" in the Bible—one of the books even bears that name. Today, I'd like to share a few meaningful numbers that reflect the impact of your local Knights of Columbus Council, grounded in our core principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

We are a brotherhood of over 150 dedicated Catholic men, united in faith and service. Thanks to your ongoing support, our Cans and Bottles program has raised more than $30,000 in recent years. Every dollar has gone back into supporting our Catholic school and parish youth initiatives, living out our mission of Charity.

☛ Just a few weeks ago, our KC Burger Cart took to the streets of Silver Lake to serve over 600 KC burgers to runners and volunteers at the Cascade Lakes Relay.

☛ That event alone raised more than $2,000 to further fuel our charitable mission and build Unity with our greater Central Oregon community.

☛ Each month, hundreds of volunteer hours are quietly given by our members at the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, answering Christ's call to feed the hungry and serve with compassion.

☛ And here's one more number: 6—that's the number of pies served to a joyful crowd of over 100 during our 4th of July Ice Cream & Pie Social—a true celebration of Fraternity and Patriotism.

We'll be back again soon—join us for Breakfast Burritos on July 20th after the 7:30 and 10 a.m. Masses. Your presence and support help us build a stronger, more faithful parish community.

Vivat Jesus!
