Alpha: Bringing the Mission to the Center of Our Church's Life and Activities—Part 3

Evangelization Alpha is a tool to introduce people to an initial proclamation of the good news of Jesus Christ—the kerygma. As Pope Francis says, “Nothing is more solid, profound, secure, meaningful, and wisdom-filled than that initial proclamation.”

—Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, 165

Encounter Alpha takes people on a journey often leading to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ. It enables people to ask their questions, share ideas, build friendships, and experience the love of God through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Everyone Alpha is for everyone: all backgrounds, all contexts, all ages. Alpha is particularly attracting many young people who are asking the question, “Is there more to life than this?”

Alpha is not meant to bring people all the way to a fullness of the understanding of the Catholic Faith. It is, after all, Alpha, the beginning. It is to lead people toward an ongoing journey of conversion after Alpha. It could be involving people in small groups, taking an active part in one or ministries at the Church, reaching out to the needy, etc. Alpha is only the beginning of a life-long journey!

“Alpha is one of the best things happening in the Church today. For so many parishes, there is no event or program that we can be free to invite people to. But Alpha for Catholics gives us the chance to be the kind of missionary disciples that God has called us all to be. If any parish is looking for a place to be welcoming and engaging, they must be offering Alpha for Catholics.”

—Fr. Mike Schmitz

“Alpha lit a spark of faith that has grown into a fire. I began a personal relationship with God, which has been necessary for personal transformation. I’m more patient, more kind, more tolerant, and especially more interested in how I can help others. Prior to Alpha, I attended Sunday Mass about 75% of the time, but I was asleep in the pew. It was a duty I inherited. After Alpha, I was drawn to Mass and confession as never before. Now I attend Mass a few times a week and confession very frequently. I have been a small group leader for fourteen Alphas in parish settings and in the work place. My passion to tell others the good news propels me forward and I am not afraid to lead, guide, and instruct. The Holy Spirit is my mentor and coach!”

—Pauline Maher, a participant of Alpha

“I did not know what to expect when I was invited, and I went from one surprise to another. The other guests had the same questions I did, and I was really impressed by how freely they shared. I never felt judged, and that feels like such a change. Alpha was a foundation for the rest of my life!”

—Yann, a student

“Alpha is without doubt a great experience of New Evangelization.”

—Archbishop Rino Fisichella, President, Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization

We hope to introduce Alpha at St. Francis this fall, and we need your help. Please begin to pray for this event, and please do the following:

- Write down the names of three people you would like to see explore faith—three persons you would like to invite to Alpha.
- Set a daily alarm at 3 p.m. as a reminder to pray for those three persons.
- Be open and expectant to see how God might use you. When we spend time with the Living God, we see Him do extraordinary things.

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

Historic Church Renovation

Everyone who took the survey agreed that we need to maintain the Historic Church because it is a symbol of a strong Catholic presence here in Bend:

"It has stood for more than 100 years, and the renovation would prepare it to stand for the next 100 years and beyond. It is an important piece of our history and needs to be treated as such. . . ."

"It stands as a beacon of faith, not only for Catholics, but for the whole community to see. It is constructed to properly show devotion to God and deserves to be preserved so as to reflect God's beauty and rightly order us to true worship."
