HOLY WEEK

The Holy Week begins today with the observance of Palm Sunday. Holy Week is ordered to the commemoration of Christ's Passion—beginning with His Messianic entrance into Jerusalem. The days of Holy Week—from Monday to Thursday inclusive—have precedence over all other celebrations. The Passion of the Lord dominates the entire Holy Week. It is a customary practice to drape the crucifix and statues wherever it is possible to do so.

Palm Sunday

On Palm Sunday the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish His Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all Masses, by means of procession. We will begin the Mass in the narthex of the Church with the blessing of the palms. Please follow the cross all the way to the steps of the sanctuary in procession, and then to go to the pew where you plan to sit.

The Rite of Blessing of the Palms and the procession will take the place of the Introductory Rite of the Mass, and the Gospel of the Passion of the Lord is read without a gospel procession, and greeting, and signing of the book.

Holy Thursday

Lent ends before the Evening Prayer on Holy Thursday. The Easter Triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, ending with the conclusion of Vespers on Easter Sunday. Since Christ accomplished His work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God principally through His Paschal Mystery, in which by dying He has destroyed our death, and by rising restored our life, the sacred Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year.

At the Mass of the Lord's Supper when He instituted the Eucharist, the tabernacle and holy water fonts are emptied before the celebration. The "Gloria" is sung with bells rung and, when it is finished, the bells will remain silent until the "Gloria" is sung again at the Easter Vigil. The foot-washing ceremony is held at this Mass after the homily, to remind us of the example of love and service Jesus set for us at the Last Supper.

After the "Prayer after Communion," the procession with the Holy Eucharist takes place to the St.

Clare Chapel—the place of reposition. There the Adoration of the Eucharist continues until midnight.

The altar is stripped after the celebration of the Lord's Supper, all crosses are removed or veiled, tabernacles are left empty and opened, and lamps/votive candles are not to be lit before the images of saints.

Good Friday

The celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday has three parts: the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion. Unlike other celebrations, there is no entrance procession or an entrance song. The Ministers take their seats and at the appropriate time, the priest and deacon wearing red vestments approach the sanctuary in silence and prostrate or kneel before the altar and pray in silence while the entire congregation kneels. The Liturgy of the Word continues with the opening prayer, two readings, the Lord's Passion according to John, the homily, and the Solemn Intercessions.

Then the solemn Adoration of the Holy Cross takes place with the deacon bringing up in procession a veiled cross. The priest standing before the altar unveils it in three phases, each time raising it and singing Ecce lignum Crucis. Then the priests and deacons venerate the cross and invite the people to venerate it by kneeling or bowing before it. After the Adoration of the Cross, the Good Friday collection is taken up for the Holy Land while the altar is prepared for Communion service. When distribution of Communion is completed, the ciborium is taken back to the place from where it was brought. The priest then says the "Prayer after Communion" and the "Prayer over the People." After genuflecting to the cross, all depart in silence without a song or dismissal.

Holy Saturday

Holy Saturday is the day of proximate preparation for the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation. Holy Saturday recalls the mystery of Christ's descent into hell. The Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting, meditating on His Passion and death and awaiting His resurrection.

NO sacrament including the Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated on this day, except the Sacrament of the Sick in case of an emergency.

“Knights Corner”

Thanks to all who donated to our “Pennies for Heaven Drive” the past few weeks. We have collected just over $2,000 so far! These funds go to the seminarians at Mt. Angel—these men are our future Priests—and they have no income, so every little bit helps! It’s not too late if you still want to support this wonderful cause. We will turn in our donation at the K of C State Convention that takes place in early May. Send your donation to the St. Francis Church located at 2450 NE 27th St., Bend, OR 97701, c/o Knights of Columbus. Make your check payable to Knights of Columbus and put “Pennies for Heaven” on the memo line.
