Knights' Corner

Imagine yourself not merely as an early ocean explorer, but as a man of faith standing at the edge of the unknown—before even the days of Columbus.
You are drawn by a deep yearning to see what lies beyond the horizon, to go where few dare to travel.
The boats you've built have already crossed challenging waters, perhaps even forging paths where none existed before.

Now, you seek a crew—not just to follow, but to journey with you.
You could easily teach them the basics: how to gather wood, how to shape the vessel, how to steer it into the wind. But what if, instead, you inspired them to look beyond themselves?

To believe they were capable of building something greater than a boat something that could carry not just men, but mission, meaning, and purpose?

As a Knight of Columbus, you are that explorer—and so are the men beside you.
Our Order calls us not simply to participate, but to pursue greatness together.

By inspiring one another to reach beyond our limitations, we discover that the real journey is not just across the sea it's within our hearts, guided by faith, and made stronger by fraternity.

Come say "Hi" after Mass.
