Divine Mercy Sunday

Priate revelations and apparitions that have been authenticated by the Church have added greatly to the devotion of Catholics. However, even private revelations and apparitions authenticated by the Church do not add anything new to the fullness of revelation already given to us by Jesus. But they remind us that we have not been paying enough attention to Jesus—the fullness of revelation.

Therefore, authenticated private revelations and apparitions are a summons and wake-up call to be ever more sincere in turning away from sin and growing in faith and love of Jesus.

In the year 2000, Our Holy Father Pope John Paul II instituted a new feast, the Feast of Divine Mercy to be celebrated for the first time in 2001 on the Second Sunday of Easter; i.e. today. It arises out of a series of apparitions which a Polish nun, Sr. Faustina, received. Sr. Faustina was born in Poland in 1905. When she was 20 years old, she entered the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy where she lived for the next 13 years—until her death on October 5, 1938. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1993 and canonized in 2000. When canonizing her, the Holy Father said:

“Today my joy is truly great in presenting the life and witness of Sr. Faustina to the whole Church as a gift of God for our time. By Divine Providence, the life of this humble daughter of Poland was completely linked with the history of the twentieth century, the century we have just left behind. In fact, it was between the First and Second World Wars that Christ entrusted his message of mercy to her. Those who remember, who were witnesses and participants in the events of those years and the horrible sufferings they caused for millions of people, know well how necessary was this message of mercy.”

In April 1978, the Holy See in Rome permitted the spread of this devotion. This does not mean that you are required to believe in the apparitions or practice this devotion, but you are free to do so and free to spread the devotion because the Church has found nothing in it contrary to our faith. The one primarily responsible for the Holy See approving the authenticity of the apparitions was Karol Wojtyla, then Archbishop of Cracow, who was later that year elevated as Pope. In 1981, Pope John Paul said that his destined role was to bring the era of Divine Mercy into the world:

“Right from the beginning of my ministry in St. Peter’s See in Rome, I consider this message my special task. Providence has assigned it to me in the present situation of man, the Church, and the world.”

Today, we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy; thus, we usually call today Divine Mercy Sunday. St. Faustina was privileged to receive apparitions from Jesus emphasizing His mercy, and especially His mercy today. Jesus’ promise is recorded three times in the Diary of Saint Faustina, each time in a slightly different way. This is the first teaching from Jesus:

“My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. . . . The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day, all the divine flood-gates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy.”

*For the sake of His sorrowful passion,
Have mercy on us and on the whole world.*

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

Knights' Corner

The Knights of Columbus—Living the Pillar of Fraternity

Fraternity is one of the four foundational principles of the Knights of Columbus, along with Charity, Unity, and Patriotism. It reflects the deep bond of brotherhood shared among Catholic men—a commitment to support one another in faith, family, and service.

As a sign of this brotherhood in action, Brother Knights and their wives from across Oregon will gather at St. Thomas Catholic Church in Redmond for the Annual State Convention, from May 2nd to May 4th. Together, we'll be sharing fellowship, celebrating Mass, and discussing new initiatives that grow our faith, defend life, serve others, and continue our charitable mission.

This event is a reminder that our strength as Knights comes not only from what we do, but from the spiritual and personal support we give each other along the way.

OUR FAMOUS BREAKFAST BURRITOS WILL MAKE THEIR ANNUAL RETURN ON JUNE 1ST.

Come say, "Hi," after Mass—one of us is usually around.
