Burial and Cremation for Catholics: Part II

Although the revised code of Canon Law permitted cremation, the church law had not specified exactly what should be done with “cremains.” Therefore, it was asked at several bishops’ conferences that the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith provide guidance.

The result—approved by Pope Francis after consultation with other Vatican offices, and with Bishops’ Conferences, and Eastern Churches’ Synods of Bishops—is Ad Resurgendum cum Christo (“To Rise with Christ”), an instruction “regarding the burial of the deceased and the conservation of the ashes in the case of cremation.”

Presenting the instruction, Cardinal Muller said, “Shortly, in many countries, cremation will be considered the ordinary way to deal with the dead, including for Catholics. Cremation, in and of itself, does not constitute a denial of belief in the immortality of the soul and the resurrection of the body,” the instruction says. Nor does it “prevent God, in His omnipotence, from raising up the deceased body to new life.”

However, Cardinal Muller added that the Catholic Church wholeheartedly recommends continuing the “pious practice of burying the dead.” It is considered one of the corporal works of mercy and, mirroring the burial of Christ, it more clearly expresses hope in the resurrection when the person’s body and soul will be reunited.

In addition, when a person is buried in the ground and—at least to some extent—when an urn with the person’s ashes is placed in a columbarium or tomb, the final resting place is marked with the person’s name, the same name with which the person was baptized and by which the person is called by God. Belief in the resurrection of the flesh is fundamental. “A human cadaver is not trash,” and an anonymous burial or scattering of ashes “is not compatible with the Christian faith.”

“Mixing the ashes of multiple individuals is not appropriate either. The name, the person, the concrete identity of the person” is important because God created each individual unique and calls each individual to Himself.

In fact, when he was asked if there was any way to rectify the situation when a person’s ashes had already been scattered, Cardinal Muller suggested making a memorial in a church or another appropriate place and including the name of the deceased. “Labeling an urn or tomb in a public place is an expression of belief in the ‘communion of saints,’ the unending unity in Christ of all the baptized, living and dead.”

“Other believers have a right to pray at the tomb” and to remember deceased members of the Catholic Church on the feast of All Saints and All Souls. “Keeping ashes at home on the mantel,” he said, “is a sign of not understanding how the loved one belonged to the entire community of faith and not just to his or her closest relatives.”

One thing that is often forgotten is to call the priest for the Last Rite when a person is getting close to the end of life. As Catholics, we have a responsibility to do so.

Most of the time, I am called a bit too late when the dying person is not able to respond or know what is happening to her/him. It is better when the person who is ill knows what is happening and able to respond to prayers. It is also important that the person is able to receive viaticum (communion) which is the food for his/her final journey. I love it when the members of the family make the sacrifice to be there with their sick loved one to celebrate the Final Rite together. It should be a joyful thing to come together, say our final prayers together, and send our loved ones on their way to their heavenly home where we shall all be reunited someday.

“Ontario Pilgrimage Summary”

The Respect for Life Ministry would like to thank our Pastor, Fr. Jose Thomas, and fellow Pilgrims: Pat Credecan, Janet Deppmeier, Rob Evans, John Martin, Jacob Schreiber, Paula Tierney, Steve & Bonnie Wilkins, and Hank Zelinski.

Our group made it out to Ontario without incident, thanks to the prayer support from our parish. For every hour of our pilgrimage, there was at least one parishioner praying the rosary at home or in the St. Clare Chapel for our safety, for a total of 45 people. We want to thank you all for that support.

We stood our two, 1-hour vigils in front of the Planned Parenthood—one in the afternoon on Wednesday, October 25th, and one in the morning of Thursday, the 26th, after a morning Mass at Blessed Sacrament Church. The Ontario parish community was very supportive throughout the entire time of the “40 Days Pray-4-Life,” offering meals and lodging to the pilgrims requesting it.

The Ontario community, as a whole, seems to be pro-life judging from the public input while we were standing our time. Praying the rosary, led by Fr. Jose, helped keep this time a thoughtful, spiritual time for all. It was seasonally cold and Wednesday offered some moisture as well to remind us of the sacrificial nature of the event!

There was a high level of activity in the parking lot as mostly Idahoans came and went from the clinic. We pray that our presence offered a time of reflection for all who observed our prayers and that, praise God, we will eventually see an end to the wholesale termination of pre-born life in our country.

Olivewood Carvings

We are once again having olivewood carvings available to purchase after all the Masses next weekend, November 18th/19th. The proceeds go to support the Christian/Catholic families in the Holy Land, which is the major source of their income for them there.

The carvings come from more than 80 families in Bethlehem—and all are all very beautiful and unique items (nativities, crucifixes, rosaries, statues, etc.).

The Christian population has dropped from 22% to less than 2% in the past two decades, and this is a way to help support them to be able to stay there.

Thank you for your help and support.
