Burial and Cremation for Catholics: Part III

Our deceased loved ones need to find a resting place that is not on a mantle or in the homes of the living. They need to find rest in God, and we need to let them go—they have left this world of concerns, worries, pains, and sorrows. They belong to the Church Triumphant (saints) and not the Church Militant (living).

After finding the empty tomb, Peter and John returned home, but Mary Magdalene stayed at the tomb weeping. Then to her Jesus said, “Do not cling to me,” meaning that His time had come to leave, and she needed to let Him go.

“Only in grave and exceptional cases,” the instruction (from the Vatican) says, “local bishops may give permission for ashes to be kept in a private home.” Cardinal Müller said it was not up to him, but to local and national bishops’ conferences to determine what those “grave and exceptional” circumstances might be. Placing the ashes in a sacred place also “prevents the faithful departed from being forgotten or their remains from being shown a lack of respect,” which is more likely to happen as time goes on, and the people closest to the deceased also pass away, the instruction says.

In conclusion here is the summary:

- ▶ The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burial be retained; but it does not forbid cremation, unless this is chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching.
- ▶ It is generally preferred that cremation takes place after the funeral Mass with the body present. If that is not possible, the funeral Mass needs to be celebrated at least with the presence of cremated remains.
- ▶ Cremated remains should be preferably interred in a Catholic cemetery or in a sacred ground in an appropriate container. This may be in the ground or in a niche, vault or columbarium. The Church recommends that the place of burial be memorialized in a stable manner.
- ▶ The ashes should not be placed in unsuitable receptacles such as jewelry, dishes, or space capsules. Nor should cremated remains be made into jewelry, artwork, or other objects of display.

- ▶ Practices such as scattering the cremated remains over water or from the air, or keeping the cremated remains at home are not considered reverent forms of disposition that the Church requires.
- ▶ Other practices such as comingling cremated remains or dividing up cremated remains among family members or friends are not acceptable for Catholics. It would be acceptable, however, to place remains side by side in receptacles that would eventually disintegrate and mix the ashes after burial.

A Mass of Christian burial is what the Church recommends for every Catholic. It is not just a celebration of life. It is coming together to pray, offering the sacrifice of Christ Himself—the Mass—for our loved ones, and to entrust them to God’s mercy.

Unfortunately, it may be true, as I have encountered many times, that you may be the only one who is a practicing Catholic in your family, and your children might not think of a Catholic funeral service for you. Or, they may not know what to do. Therefore, it is wise that you make plans while you are still able, and make them available in writing to the funeral home or to a responsible member of your family.

If you need help with planning, the Funeral Coordinator at St. Francis can be reached by calling the Parish Office at (541) 382-3631 or by emailing griefministry@stfrancisbend.org. She will be happy to assist you in making plans for a Catholic funeral.

It is always better to have everything in writing so that your spouse and children are not left to figure out what you may have wanted. It is also important to let the Church know of the passing away of a Catholic in your family. For us Christians, death is not a “goodbye” but a “see you later.”

In My Father’s house, there are many dwelling places; . . . I am going to prepare a place for you. I will come back and take you to Myself, so that where I am you also may be (Jn. 14: 2-4).

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

“Knights Corner”

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank everyone for their generous donations to our Helping Hands Drive. In the last two months, we have donated many items to local shelters and people in need. Also, our annual Coats for Kids Drive was a considerable success, and we donated 14 cases of new coats to Bethlehem Inn, Shepherd's House Ministries, St. Vincent de Paul, and the Assistance League of Bend. With these drives, the estimated dollar amount for new and used items was just over $2,500!

Again, thanks to all the parishioners who donated clothing, blankets, sleeping bags, toiletries, and many other items, we were able to have such a successful Helping Hands Drive.

The Coats for Kids Drive was a success due to many of you who help us at the monthly breakfasts that we put on. The monthly breakfasts, along with the Bottles and Cans project, are our two main fund-raisers, and what allow the Knights of Columbus to do what we do!

With that said, we continue with our Bottles and Cans Drive, and we urge all parishioners to please drop your Oregon redeemable bottles and cans in our kiosk located in the parking lot behind the church. Monies collected from this project go to the St. Francis School and Youth Programs.

For more information on the Knights of Columbus,

There Is Hope for Your Marriage!

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling couples regain and renew the life and health of their marriage. It helps to reawaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurt or broken marriages and bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples who can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy, and heal just as they have done in their own marriages.

Join Oregon Retrouvaille as we host a working weekend for couples struggling in their marriages by couples who have been there in the struggle. Come January 26–28, 2024 at Our Lady of Peace Retreat Center in Beaverton, OR.

The Story of Our Lady of Guadalupe

The feast in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe goes back to the 16th Century.

Chronicles of that period tell us the story of a poor Indian named Cuauhtlatohuac who was baptized and given the name Juan Diego.

When he was a 57-year-old widower, he lived in a small village near Mexico City. On Saturday morning, December 9, 1531, he was on his way to a nearby barrio to attend Mass in honor of Our Lady.

Juan was walking by a hill called Tepeyac when he heard beautiful music—like the warbling of birds. A radiant cloud appeared, and within it stood an Indian maiden dressed like an Aztec princess. The lady spoke to him in his own language and sent him to the bishop of Mexico, a Franciscan named Juan de Zumarraga. The bishop was told to build a chapel in the place where the lady had appeared. Eventually the bishop asked Juan to have the lady give him a sign. About this same time Juan's uncle became seriously ill.

This led poor Juan to try to avoid the lady. Nevertheless, the lady found him, assured him that his uncle would recover, and provided roses for Juan to carry to the bishop in his cape or tilma.

On December 12th, when Juan Diego opened his tilma in the bishop's presence, the roses fell to the ground, and the bishop sank to his knees. On the tilma where the roses had been appeared an image of Mary exactly as she had appeared at the hill of Tepeyac.
