Advent Is Not Christmas: Preparing a Gift for the Christ Child

Every year, the world begins celebrating Christmas long before December 25th. The music, decorations, lights, parties, and shopping appear sometimes even before Thanksgiving. It becomes easy—even for us Catholics—to think that Advent is simply “the Christmas Season.”

But Advent is not Christmas. Advent is a sacred waiting, a season of holy preparation, a time the Church gives us to ready our hearts for the coming of Jesus Christ.

Christmas celebrates that He has come; Advent prepares us to receive Him.

In the Catholic Church, the tone of Advent is quiet, expectant, hopeful. The colors are deep violet and rose. The Gloria is set aside. The readings speak of prophets, longing, and watchfulness. The prayers are full of the word “come.”

Advent teaches us a profound spiritual truth: If I do not prepare room in my heart, I may miss the One who comes.

Just like Mary, Joseph, the shepherds, and the Magi, we must journey toward the manger—not rushed, not distracted but awake and ready.

Advent—A Season to Make Space

Imagine your home before a special guest arrives. You straighten the living room, clear the table, light a candle, maybe even set out the best dishes. You prepare because you want the guest to feel welcome.

Advent asks the same of us spiritually: “Is there room in the inn of my heart for Jesus?” This is why Advent focuses on watchfulness (staying spiritually awake), conversion (cleaning out what clutters the soul), hope (believing that Christ comes to heal and save).

Before the joy of Christmas comes the discipline of Advent; before celebration comes preparation; before the feast comes the hunger. And this preparation is not meant to burden us, it is meant to free us: to slow down, to reflect, to pray more, to simplify, to breathe again.

Christmas Is God Giving His Gift to Us

Christmas is the day God gives His greatest gift: His Son. Not a symbol, not a reminder, not a message—a Person. God Himself becomes small enough to be held in human arms.

But then Advent invites us to ask a beautiful question in return: “What gift will I give to the Baby Jesus this Christmas?” Not a gift under a tree, not a wrapped present, but a gift of the heart—something real, something personal, something that costs us a little.

Just as the Magi brought gold, frankincense, and myrrh, we too can bring our gifts—not physical treasures, but spiritual ones. Here are some possibilities for your reflection:

1. A Gift of Time

Maybe Jesus is asking:

- ◆ “Will you spend a few more minutes with Me in prayer?”
- ◆ “Will you visit Me in the Blessed Sacrament?”
- ◆ “Will you come to Sunday Mass with your whole heart?”

Time is one of the most precious gifts we can give—because it is the one thing we cannot replace.

2. A Gift of Reconciliation

Perhaps the most beautiful gift you can place before the manger is a heart made new: going to Confession, forgiving someone, letting go of resentment, asking forgiveness where needed.

Jesus came to heal, to reconcile, to bring peace. He rejoices when we offer Him a heart that has chosen peace over bitterness.

3. A Gift of Compassion

Jesus said, “Whatever you do for the least of these, you do for me.” So your gift might be: helping a family in need, being more patient at home, calling someone who is lonely, giving generously and quietly. Every act of love becomes a ray of light in the manger.

4. A Gift of Self-Control or Sacrifice

Maybe the baby Jesus is asking you to let go of something that takes up too much space in your heart: complaining, impatience, gossip, excessive screen time, unhealthy habits. These sacrifices open room for grace.

5. A Gift of Trust

Perhaps what Jesus desires most is something simple but profound: your trust. To say: “Lord, I don’t have everything figured out, but I place my life in Your hands.”

To surrender a fear, a worry, or a burden at His feet is a powerful offering.

Advent Changes Christmas

When we truly live Advent—slowly, prayerfully, intentionally—Christmas is transformed. It becomes more than a holiday. It becomes an encounter. A moment of grace. A birth inside our own souls.

The real question of Advent is not:

- ◆ “Is my house decorated?”
- ◆ “Do I have all my gifts bought?”
- ◆ “Is everything ready for the party?”

The real question is:

“Is my heart ready to receive Christ?”

And so, each day of Advent, we can pray:

Come, Lord Jesus.

*Show me the gift You desire from me this Christmas.
Prepare my heart to welcome You.*

When Christmas dawns and we kneel before the manger, we will not come empty-handed. We will come offering something real, something from the heart—a gift for the Child who came to save us.

Knights' Corner

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 1872

Charity stands as one of the founding principles of the Knights of Columbus. As a fraternal organization, we actively support several local charities whose missions align closely with our Catholic values and beliefs—including St. Vincent de Paul, Habitat for Humanity, the Pregnancy Resource Center, and the Bethlehem Inn.

While the Knights of Columbus is not itself a charity, we are deeply committed to serving those in need. Through our partnership with the Diocese of Baker's Legacy of Faith Foundation Fund, any charitable contributions made to the K of C 1872 Designated Fund can directly benefit the organizations we support on a regular basis.

For those who are over age 70.5 years and wish to make Qualified Charitable Distributions, and may have required minimum IRA disbursements, this can be an excellent way to direct funds toward meaningful, faith-based causes in collaboration with our local K of C members.

We would also like to extend our heartfelt thanks to three anonymous donors who recently helped jump-start our account. Your generosity inspires us all.

For details, contact Mark French with the Diocese of Baker LFF at (541) 388-4004 or Matt Deppmeier at (541) 904-5548.

ST. FRANCIS Saints

The mission of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School is to educate the whole child in a Christ-centered community that values service, leadership, and academic excellence.

Our vision is to inspire academic scholars, motivated to serve with faith and moral character.

Kindergarten put together an awesome performance called "Arthur's Thanksgiving." For being in kindergarten, they did a great job projecting their voices for all to hear and memorized their lines. All I have to say is, "Wow!"

The St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School would like to thank all the Parishioners, the Parish, and the businesses that have supported our school this past year and will continue to in the years to come. We really appreciate the support and kindness provided to us. We are giving back to the community with each class doing a community service project, and we have several school-wide community service projects. For example, we collected gently used clothing and coats that we donated to the Bethlehem Inn. Our new service project for the month of December is to collect nonperishable foods for St. Francis of Assisi Food Baskets and new toys.

Please bring your donations of sugar, flour, cooking oil, peanut butter, jam or jelly, pancake mix, syrup, toothbrushes & toothpaste, and/or new toys to the School Office.

Thank you to all who ordered Christmas Wreaths. You may pick them up on Monday, December 1st, 3 to 4 p.m., or on December 3rd & 4th—all day at the School's Main Office.

We held a Mother/Daughter and Father/Son night in the Community Center on Friday, November 14th. The parents and children had a great time making Christmas ornaments and snow globes while watching the "Elf" movie and eating pizza.

Why Should You Choose St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School?

High academic standards, holistic approach to education, character and values education, strong sense of community, a safe and disciplined setting, a diverse and inclusive setting, focus on preparing your student for high school, technology incorporated into the classroom, extracurricular activities, dedicated and passionate teachers, consistent learning environment, positive school culture, parental involvement, lifelong benefits of values-based education, and small class sizes.
