St. Joseph, Patron of the Dying

We are in the “Year of St. Joseph” to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of St. Joseph being solemnly declared Patron of the Universal Church by Pope Pius IX. Ever since it started last December, we have been reflecting every month on a virtue of St. Joseph to deepen our understanding of him and so to honor him. This month being the Month of Holy Souls, we are reflecting on his title, “the hope of the dying.”

One very important way St. Joseph helps us on our journey to heaven is through his special gift of intercession as we prepare for our departure from our life here on earth. St. Joseph is known as the Patron of a Happy Death. It is essential to understand the true meaning of the words “a happy death,” even though the dying person may be experiencing great pain from health issues, as well as fear and anxiety over the unknown. The term “happy,” in this context, does not connote the emotion of being glad, or even cheerful. Rather, it signifies being peaceful, full of faith and hope in Jesus Christ, which carries with it a certain joy. Because every person will eventually face death, each one of us needs and wants the help of St. Joseph, our loving spiritual father, on the road of passing from this life to the next.

St. Joseph is called the “Patron of the dying.” He died a blessed and happy death because Jesus and Mary were at his side. Scripture does not reveal how he died, but it’s safe to assume St. Joseph died in the arms of Jesus and Mary. His holy death reflected his holy life. St. Joseph was a just man and lived his life loving and serving Jesus and Mary, through being obedient to God’s will. “The Church encourages us to prepare ourselves for the hour of our death. In the litany of saints, for instance, the Church has us pray:

‘From a sudden and unforeseen death, deliver us, O Lord’; to ask the Mother of God to intercede for us ‘at the hour of our death’ in the Hail Mary; and to entrust ourselves to St. Joseph, the patron of a happy death.” (CCC #1014)

There is a spiritual battle at the point of death. Therefore, we are called to entrust ourselves to St. Joseph. Along with this entrustment, we are strengthened in our love and faithfulness to the Lord and His Church by receiving the sacraments, above all, by attending Mass every Sunday, by receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, and by going to Confession on a regular basis. When we pray for a “happy death,” it includes a heartfelt plea that a priest will be present to give us the last sacraments: hearing our confession, anointing us and bringing us viaticum—the Holy Eucharist—as food for this journey. This is a lifelong preparation and should not be put off, so that we can guard against being unprepared at the time of death.

Jesus desires to give us everything we need for the final journey, with the help of St. Joseph interceding for us. Let us “go to Joseph” as our spiritual father, who will lead us to Jesus throughout our lives, and, in a particular way, at the hour of our death.

O BLESSED JOSEPH,
who yielded up thy last breath in the arms
of Jesus and Mary, I entrust myself to you.
Obtain for me this grace, O holy Joseph,
that I may breathe forth my soul in praise, saying in spirit, if I am unable to do so in words:
Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I give Thee my heart and my soul."

Amen.

ST. FRANCIS SCHOOL NEWS

The mission of Saint Francis of Assisi Catholic School is to educate the whole child in a Christ-centered community that values service, leadership, and academic excellence.

The vision of our school is to inspire academic scholars motivated to serve and lead the world with Faith and moral character.

St. Francis School Traditions Old and New!

It has been a long-standing tradition for our students to celebrate "All Saints Day." The children each choose a saint to research, learn, and then represent that saint by dressing up for All Saints Day! The students share with each other about their saint, we have a saint parade through the school, and "Trunk or Treat" in the parking lot of the Church! Parents decorate the trunks of their cars or trucks, and pass out candy to all of the students! It is a fun and safe way for our students to be able to incorporate All Saints Day with the American holiday of Halloween. In keeping with our Catholic traditions, our regular weekly School Mass was celebrated on Tuesday, November 2nd, which is All Souls Day. The children were invited to place pictures of any deceased family member on a table in front of the altar that morning, and prayed for all of our loved ones.

2nd Grade learning about Dia de los Muertos and the month of All Souls.

In recent years, our students have begun to learn about Dia de los Muertos in Spanish class! This year, our 2nd Grade class had a parent volunteer, Mrs. Aparicio, come in to teach the children how to make "sugar skulls" and other traditions for Dia de los Muertos! Thank you Mrs. Aparicio!

St. Francis Students' Saint Parade & "Trunk or Treat"

The St. Francis School Annual Auction is another long standing tradition! This year we are celebrating The Annual Auction's 40th Anniversary! We are excited to be able to bring this tradition back to an in-person event! Mark your calendars for an exciting night for our community to come together and support our parish school.

Cheers to 40 years!
