From the Pastor

St. Francis of Assisi: Living the Gospel Radically—Part 2

Francis' search for conversion led him to the ancient church at San Damiano. While he was praying there, he heard Christ on the crucifix speak to him: "Francis, repair my church." Francis assumed that this meant church with a small "c"—the crumbling building that he was in.

Acting again in his impetuous way, he took fabric from his father's shop and sold it to get money to repair the church. His father saw this as an act of theft and dragged Francis before the bishop and in front of the whole town, demanding that Francis return the money and renounce all rights as his heir. It is the same call that challenges us today to renovate the Historic Church.

The bishop was very kind to Francis; he told him to return the money and said God would provide. That was all Francis needed to hear. He not only gave back the money but the very clothes he had on. In front of the crowd that had gathered he said, "Pietro Bernardone is no longer my father. From now on I can say with complete freedom, 'Our Father who art in heaven.' " Wearing nothing he went off into the freezing woods—singing.

From then on Francis had nothing . . . and everything. He begged for stones and rebuilt the San Damiano Church with his own hands, not realizing that it was the Church with a capital "C" that God wanted repaired. Scandal and avarice were working on the Church from the inside, while outside heresies flourished.

Soon Francis started to preach. He preached about returning to God and obedience to the Church. Francis must have known about the decay in the Church, but he always showed the Church and its people his utmost respect. Slowly companions came to Francis, people who wanted to follow his life of sleeping in the open, begging for food...and loving God. With companions, Francis knew he now had to have some kind of direction to this life. So, he opened the Bible in three places. He read the command to the rich young man to sell all his good and give to the poor, the order to the apostles to take nothing on their journey, and the demand to take up the cross daily. Francis took these commands literally. He never wanted to found a religious order. His companions came from all walks of life, from fields and towns, nobility and common people, universities, the Church, and the merchant class. Francis practiced true equality by showing honor, respect, and love to every person—whether they were beggar or pope.

Francis' brotherhood included all of God's creation. Much has been written about Francis' love of nature, but his relationship was deeper than that. He really felt that nature—all God's creations—were part of his brotherhood. The sparrow was as much his brother as the pope. In one famous story, Francis preached to hundreds of birds about being thankful to God for their wonderful clothes, for their independence, and for God's care. The story tells us that the birds stood still as he walked among him, only flying off when he said they could leave.

Another famous story involves a wolf that had been eating human beings. Francis intervened when the town wanted to kill the wolf, and he talked the wolf into never killing again. The wolf became a pet of the townspeople who made sure that he always had plenty to eat.

Following the Gospel literally, Francis and his companions went out to preach two by two. At first, listeners were understandably hostile to these men in rags trying to talk about God's love. People even ran from them for fear they'd catch this strange madness! And they were right. Because soon these same people noticed that these barefoot beggars wearing sacks seemed filled with constant joy. They celebrated life. And people had to ask themselves: "Could one own nothing and be happy?" Soon those who had met them with mud and rocks, greeted them with bells and smiles.

“Knights Corner”

The “Helping Hands” Donation Drive is to benefit the needy. Everything we collect will be donated to non-profit organizations and homeless shelters in Bend. We ask parishioners to donate coats and blankets (they don’t have to be new), socks, underwear (new items only please), as well as hygiene items. We have collection bins in the narthex this Sunday. We also have bins in the narthex for non-perishable food donations for our “Food for Families” Program.

We continue with our “Bottles and Cans” Drive, and we urge all parishioners to please drop your Oregon redeemable bottles and cans in our kiosk located in the parking lot behind the Church. Monies collected from this project go to the St. Francis School and Youth Programs.

The Knights of Columbus seeks to invite men to join in order to help them become better men, better Catholics, and better family men. The more men who join the Knights, the better we can do, and the more men we can help to form.

Thank you for supporting the Knights of Columbus. Men, if you have an interest in becoming a Knight, please contact Pat Burrus at (435) 659-4623 or Matt Deppmeier at (541) 904-5548 for more information. Also visit kofc.org.

Be Bold! Be Catholic! Be a Knight!

—Pat Burrus, Grand Knight

Sr. Desirée Barron's Biography

Hello! My name is Sr. Desiree, and I was born in Helena, Montana. When I was 6, my family moved to Ranchester, Wyoming. There, I was raised in a very devout home where my mom taught me how to talk to God and showed me how to become friends with Jesus. When I was young, my mom took me to daily Mass at a little monastery near our house. I loved the warmth and kindness the Sisters showed me and my siblings. Their simple witness to the joy of giving all to Jesus watered the seed of my vocation.

As I grew up, I enjoyed exploring the vast mountainous landscape that Montana and Wyoming treasure so dearly. The natural beauty of Wyoming gave me a love for adventure and helped me to become aware of God's presence in all things. I enjoyed the responsibility of being the oldest child of 6 kids by the age of 12. I loved caring for my siblings and helping my mom however I could. While in high school, a young priest in my parish befriended my family and guided me to explore the possibility of a religious vocation. Thanks to the support of Fr. Brian and my mom, I began to respond to the call the Lord had placed in my heart as a little girl.

When I was 17, I went to visit the Salesian Sisters for the first time in 2019. The peace and joy that filled my heart there confirmed for me that this was where God wanted me. After spending a year as a SPIRITUS Missionary in Wisconsin, I entered the congregation at the age of 20. In formation, my love for the youth has grown all the more, and my joy in serving the Lord has blossomed beyond measure.

— Sr. Desirée Barron
