St. Francis of Assisi: Living the Gospel Radically—Part 1

As we will be celebrating the Feast of St. Francis in a couple of weeks, I would like to reflect on his life and works. He was born at Assisi in Umbria, in 1181. Pietro Bernardone returned from a trip to France to find out his wife had given birth to a son. But far from being excited or apologetic because he had been gone, Pietro was furious because she'd had his new son baptized Giovanni after John the Baptist. The last thing Pietro wanted in his son was a man of God. He wanted a man of business, a cloth merchant like he was, and he especially wanted a son who would reflect his infatuation with France. And so, he renamed his son Francesco—which is the equivalent of calling him “Frenchman.”

Francis enjoyed a very rich, easy life growing up because of his father's wealth, as well as the permissiveness of the times. From the beginning, everyone loved Francis. He was constantly happy, charming, and a born leader. If he was picky, people excused him. If he was ill, people took care of him. If he was so much of a dreamer that he did poorly in school, no one minded. No one tried to control him or teach him.

As he grew up, Francis became the leader of a crowd of young people who spent their nights in wild parties. Francis himself said, “I lived in sin” during that time. He fulfilled every hope of Pietro: He loved the songs of France, the romance of France, and especially the free, adventurous troubadours of France who wandered through Europe. And despite his dreaming, Francis was also good at business.

However, Francis wanted more than wealth—but it was not holiness! He wanted to be a noble—a knight. Battle was the best place to win the glory and prestige he longed for, and he got his first chance when Assisi declared war on its longtime enemy, the nearby town of Perugia.

Most of the troops from Assisi were butchered in the fight. Only those wealthy enough to expect to be ransomed were taken prisoner. Francis was among the nobility like he always wanted to be, but he was chained in a harsh, dark dungeon. Finally, after a year in the dungeon, he was ransomed.

Strangely, the experience didn't seem to change him. He gave himself to partying with as much joy as he had before the battle. The experience didn't change what he wanted from life either: “Glory.”

Finally, a call for knights for the 4th Crusade gave him the chance for his dream. His father got him a suit of armor—one decorated with gold and with a magnificent cloak. His dream was to return a prince. But he never got farther than one day's ride from Assisi. It was there that he had another dream in which God told him that he had it all wrong and to return home—and return home, he did. But for returning home without ever making it to battle, he was humiliated, laughed at, called a “coward” by the village, and raged at by his father for the money wasted on the armor.

Francis' conversion did not happen overnight. God had waited for him for 25 years, and now it was Francis' turn to wait. He started to spend a lot more time in prayer, and God's grace overwhelmed him with joy. But life couldn't just stop for God. There was a business to run and customers to wait on.

One day while riding through the countryside, Francis—the man who loved beauty, who was so picky about food, who hated deformity—came face-to-face with a leper. The look and the smell of the leper was abhorrent to him. But something had changed. He jumped down from his horse and kissed the hand of the leper. When his “kiss of peace” was returned, Francis was filled with joy. As he rode off, he turned around for a last wave and saw that the leper had disappeared. He always looked upon it as a test from God . . . and that he had passed!

“Knights Corner”

We continue with the “Helping Hands” Donation Drive to benefit the needy. Everything we collect will be donated to non-profit organizations and homeless shelters in Bend. We are asking all parishioners to donate any coats or blankets you might have (they don’t have to be new), socks, underwear (new items only please), as well as hygiene items. Please bring anything you can donate to Mass next Sunday, October 1st. We will have collection bins in the narthex.

Another area where we could use help is with non-perishable food donations. There are bins for this in the narthex as well. When you go to the store, throw an extra item in your cart. Go through your pantries, check for things that might not get used (nothing expired please), and help us with our continued effort in our “Food for Families” Program.

The monthly award Knights’ winners were: “Knight of the Month” went to Mark Sampson, “Family of the Month” went to Bruce and Tina Kjesbo, and “Lady of the Month” went to Joleyne La Chappelle. Congratulations to all!

The Knights of Columbus seeks to invite men to join in order to help them become better men, better Catholics, and better family men. The more men who join the Knights, the better we can do, and the more men we can help to form.

Thank you for supporting the Knights of Columbus. Men, if you have an interest in becoming a Knight, please contact Pat Burrus at (435) 659-4623 or Matt Deppmeier at (541) 904-5548 for more information. Also visit kofc.org.

We continue with our “Bottles and Cans” Drive, and we urge all parishioners to please drop your Oregon redeemable bottles and cans in our kiosk located in the parking lot behind the Church. Monies collected from this project go to the St. Francis School and Youth Programs.

Be Bold! Be Catholic! Be a Knight!
