The Birth of the Prince of Peace

“Do not be afraid; for I proclaim to you the Good News of great joy that a Savior has been born for you” (Lk. 2:10-11). We have been celebrating our Savior’s birth for over two thousand years—for good reasons. The birth of Christ changed world history as no other event ever did. This was not an ordinary birth. It was God becoming man. “The Word became flesh and dwelt among us,” says John the Evangelist (Jn. 1:14). Can any other event in history be greater than this?

Liturgically, the real celebration of Christmas begins with the vigil Masses on Christmas Eve (Sunday at 3, 5:30, 8, and 10 p.m.) and concludes on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The first Sunday after Christmas is the feast of The Holy Family. On January 1st, we celebrate the solemnity of the feast of Mary, Mother of God.

On the second Sunday after Christmas, we will celebrate the Epiphany, and the day after that is the feast of the Baptism of Our Lord. Unfortunately, the secular celebration of Christmas ends when we begin the liturgical celebration of Christmas.

A special word of thanks to all who helped us with the celebrations of Advent and Christmas, coordinated by Deacon Phil McCarthy. Sincere thanks to those who worked behind the scenes doing decorations, led by Lupita and Rick Wessler and Judy Kennedy, the choirs, musicians, extraordinary ministers, lectors, sacristans, greeters, ushers, those who prepared the liturgy, and everyone else who helped us in some way. Special thanks to the Knights who prepared an amazing display of the Nativity at the driveway entrance to the 27th St. Church.

It is very sad that there will be no celebration of Christmas in Bethlehem—where Christ was born. There is no peace in the land where Christ, the Prince of Peace, was born. The Municipality of Bethlehem, in Palestine, has suspended Christmas celebrations and removed the light decorations in Nativity Square and other areas of the town. The colored lights in front of the Nativity Basilica in Bethlehem have also been removed because of the war. The Nativity Basilica is deserted. Rare are the pilgrims in the Nativity Grotto. In a Statement on November 10th, the Patriarchs of the Churches in Jerusalem asked the faithful for prayers “. . . to remain firm with those faced with afflictions this year, giving up any unnecessary festive activity . . . , focusing ourselves more on the spiritual meaning of Christmas, keeping in our thoughts our brothers and sisters affected by this war and its consequences, and with fervent prayers for a just and lasting peace in our beloved Holy Land.”

However, as per the existing status quo in force since the time of the Ottoman Empire, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem, Cardinal Pierbattista Pizzaballa, will arrive on Christmas Eve, December 24th, and Father Francis Patton, Custos of the Holy Land (Franciscans), will make his solemn entrance in Bethlehem. The procession on the Street of Stars, which marks the route of the Wise Men, will be celebrated without music and with a reduced presence of people.

Although far from the conflict zone, let us remember the people caught in the crossfires of war in our celebrations. What will their Christmas look like this year? Let us pray for lasting peace.

The feast of Christmas offers convincing proof of God’s infinite love for us. For Jesus is God’s greatest gift to all mankind in a long line of precious blessings bestowed on each of us. Indeed, we have much to be thankful for as the St. Francis of Assisi Parish family.

A special word of appreciation to all of you who joined us to celebrate the birth of our Savior. Know that God loves each of you. May you carry away with you the fruits of this celebration.

Thanks a lot to all who have supported St. Francis Parish this year by prayers, volunteer services, and financial sacrifices. Your love and support are much appreciated. May God repay your graciousness and sacrifices this Christmas season and in the New Year with an abundance of spiritual and material blessings.

Have a blessed Christmas season and a grace-filled New Year!

—Fr. Jose Thomas Mudakodiyil

“Knights Corner”

How about that Nativity Scene out in front of the Church? Most of you know (but not all) that the Knights of Columbus are responsible for putting that together every year. There was a team of about 8 to 10 Knights who volunteered their time, and the project was completed in two days! (See page 7 for photos.)

Last chance to sign up for the blood drive at the end of this month, Friday, December 29th from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., in the Community Center. Give Something That Means Something! There is no substitution for donated blood. Blood donation is all about having the blood on the shelf today when it is needed to be there for accidents tomorrow. What better way to give something of yourself to someone who really needs it. Blood is needed all the time, especially now, and this is a wonderful opportunity.

Keep those Oregon redeemable bottles and cans coming. This is our #1 fundraiser, and it does not cost you anything; you made that donation when you purchased the beverage!

Men, if you have an interest in becoming a Knight,

► Parish Offices Closed ◀

From Monday, December 25th, through Monday, January 1st, the Parish Offices will be closed for Christmas.

The Offices will reopen on Tuesday, January 2nd.

Respect for Life Ministry

Each year during Advent, we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of Christ, our Savior, at Christmas. Today, women in our own communities are pregnant, poor, perhaps without a home, and in great need. They may feel alone, scared, and overwhelmed, not knowing where to turn. In challenging circumstances, expectant mothers need a refuge of their own.

May we proactively seek to offer loving support and encouragement as they prepare to welcome their children. By answering this call, may we help mothers experience the joy, hope, and peace brought by the infant Jesus. And may we, too, share in and bear witness to the miracle of new life.

Please see the "Pray for Moms" handout in the narthex this month for ways to help. It includes contacting your local pregnancy resource center or diocesan/parish pregnancy support ministry.

Parish Pro-Life Coordinator
